

Federal Communications Commission

Sirs:

The Consumer Bankers Association (CBA) has chosen to challenge Indiana's Telephone Privacy law in a proceeding before the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) under docket number 02-278. As a resident of Indiana who has been on the State's Telephone Privacy list since its inception, I would like to voice my opposition to the CBA attempts to weaken a STATE law through a federal commission. This law predates the federal regulation establishing a telephone privacy list and has been extremely effective. Because the Indiana Telephone Privacy law has been upheld in court challenges, the CBA has decided to take a backdoor approach to get the law changed so they can barrage their customers with phone calls. As a taxpayer, a voter, and an Indiana resident, I would like to request the Federal Communications Commission deny the Consumer Bankers Association request to impose the federal "established business relationship" exemption on Indiana consumers.

Thank you,
